Chamber AGM tomorrow

Elk Point Chamber of Commerce will hold their Annual General Meeting tomorrow evening in the Empress banquet room, beginning with dinner at 6:30 p.m.

The agenda includes two guest speakers. Charles Wood of the Northern Alberta Development Council will be on hand to outline the aims and activities of the Council, and will be assisted by NADC staff member Brian Pountney in answering questions about the NADC and how it can assist the people of northern Alberta. Bonnie McInnis of REACH (formerly the St. Paul / Smoky Lake Business and Community Development Corporation) will also be in attendance to explain a new federal funding program aimed at enhancing the quality of business services in western Canada.

A potential change in the number of members required for a quorum at regular Chamber meetings is also on the agenda, as are the setting of the 1998 membership fees, meeting dates and times.

The 1998 executive will be elected at the meeting, and the Nominating Committee is confident that they will have a full slate of candidates to present by that time. Chairs for the standing committees will also be appointed, to prepare the Chamber for a busy year ahead as the community begins to gear up for the beginning of a new century. One focus of the coming year is expected to be on helping the community to be the best it can be in all aspects, when the year 2000 arrives with all its challenges and celebrations.

The entire business community and any other interested individuals are invited to attend the meeting and to get involved in the Chamber. No tickets or prior reservations are required to attend.

HERE IN THE BANANA BELT -- They're growing bananas at Elk Point Elementary School, where teacher Wayne Hymanyk's five year wait is over. His banana tree has finally produced a bunch of finger-sized fruit. Now Hymanyk and his students are eagerly waiting the day when they can snack on the home-grown tropical treats.

Skate-a-thon the biggest ever with 1117 laps

Fifty one Elk Point skaters logged an incredible total of 1117 laps at the A. G. Ross Arena last Monday night, as the Elk Point Skating Club held their annual fundraising Skate-A-Thon.

Skaters from four to 44 years of age took part in the event, the biggest-ever for the club. Doug Bassett, at age 44, was the oldest skater, and did very well in the laps department as well, circumnavigating the rink 28 times. Tanner Trufyn, age four, was the youngest skater of the evening.

Prizes were awarded to the skaters who raised the most money and who skated the most laps in each age group, as well as those whose pledges topped four challenge categories.

Most laps winners were: Under 5 - Blake Brodwin (22 laps); Age 6 and 7: Male - Ian Jurak (25), Female - Diedra

Nelson (25); Age 8 and 9: Male - Mark Brodwin (31), Female - Daylan Hoffman (38); Age 10 and 11: Male - tie between Nicholas Myshaniuk and Chris Mitchell (30), Female - Ashley Hebblethwaite (29); 12 and Over: Male - Colton Hoffman (39), Kandice Bjornstad (32).

Most money raised by an individual was a whopping $1119 by Justyne Wozniak in the Under 8 Years division. Kristyn Buksa topped the 9 - 12 Years group with $392, while Jena Bassett with $45 led the 13 Years and Over group.

The prize for most money raised by a Skating Club member went to Seanna Ewasiuk, who collected $364 in pledges, while the Novices totalled $450 for the most money raised by a hockey team. Kandice Bjornstad, skating for E-Can Oilfield Services and with $320 in pledges, won the Oilfield Challenge, and Servus Credit

Union, who went out of their way to challenge other local banks, won the Bank Challenge category with $310.

Spot prizes went to Brett Hahn, Aaron Jurak, Jordan

Wozniak, Daylan Hoffman, Colton Hoffman, Ian Jurak and Mark Ference.

WINNERS OF ALL AGES collected prizes after Elk Point Skating Club's largest ever Skate-a-Thon attracted 51 participants for an afternoon of laps around the A. G. Ross Arena.

Rural Crime Watch Week, Feb. 1 - 7, 1998

Local crime watch members help with arrests

By Rhonda Noyce
Staff Writer

Staff Sergeant Jim Fell of the St. Paul RCMP can attest to the fact that Rural Crime Watch helps the police and the community.

"There has been some success in providing assistance to arrests," says Fell. "If they don't want to report (a crime) themselves, they will phone their zone reps ... We're really impressed with the group we have here."

Since the Greater Lakeland Rural Crime Watch association formed in 1980, they have consistently been "the eyes and ears of the RCMP," says Dave Boorse, president of the association.

The local group has 800 members strong and not only provides support to the police, it also assists local community activities. The association recently handed over a $5,000 cheque to the County of St. Paul to assist them in paying for rural signage. Now, when a rescue vehicle or the police are trying to find a specific rural location, they have signs to go by instead of just landmarks.

The local crime watch group has also sponsored the rape prevention course that tried to get off the ground earlier last year, and it provides financial assistance to the search and rescue team, of which some rural crime watch members are also play a part.

In order to be the eyes and ears of the police, the crime watch association and the police need to have effective communication. One way of keeping a lead on any possible crimes in the area is the phone fan-out system, where the police send out a recorded message to certain members. These messages usually consist of a 45-second script detailing a suspect person or activity that may be occurring in the area.

Boorse says they are continually looking for ways to communicate with the community in order to cut down on the amount of crime.

According to the most recent crime statistics for the County of St. Paul, thefts continue to be the most common type of Criminal Code offences. The most common thefts are vehicle thefts and thefts under $5,000. For the first three-quarters of 1997, vehicle thefts took a climb of 47 per cent compared to last year. Break-and-enters, usually associated with theft, also continue to be a problem.

COMMUNITY LOTTERY BOARD

The County of St. Paul, the Town of St. Paul and the Town of Elk Point are accepting applications from citizens wishing to participate on the Community Lottery Board. The Board will distribute available provincial lottery funding to local non-profit organizations.

Applications are being sought from interested citizens in the area who are over eighteen years old, to volunteer on this Board for a one year term. Nine members will be appointed to the new Community Lottery Board. Applicants for this board require:

- knowledge of at least one of the areas eligible for funding - community services, recreation, culture, parks, health, education, social services and the environment;
- knowledge of community issues;
- objectivity
- strong communication skills;
- team focus;
- experience with grants;
- experience with local organizations.

The Community Lottery Board will, within Provincial Guidelines,

- set funding priorities at the local level;
- call for funding applications, review and make decisions on the applications;
- develop operating procedures and bylaws within Provincial policies, guidelines and funding criteria.

Volunteer board members will be selected to ensure balanced representation from different sectors and to reflect the diversity of the community.

An information package is available at the Administrative offices of the three municipalities involved. For further information call: County of St. Paul (645-3301); Town of St. Paul (645-4481) or Town of Elk Point (724-3810).

Application Deadline: Completed applications must be delivered to one of the administrative offices of the municipalities involved by 12:00 Noon on Tuesday, February 10, 1998.

February is here with new beginnings

By Deanna Easthope
FCSS Director

Yesterday, February 2, was Groundhog Day. Now did he see his shadow or did he not see his shadow? Somehow, this year it doesn't seem to matter as much as it has in years past. We really have had a nice mild winter. So, it really doesn't matter what the Groundhog predicts. Besides, if he kept his face turned toward the sunlight, his shadow would fall behind him. Right?

Anyway, I like February. So many possibly nice happy family related things happen in February. Saturday, February the 14th is Valentine's Day. Most of us will be thinking of our sweethearts and loved ones. Then, Monday, February 16 is Family Day. Our thoughts and activities around that day will have the emphasis on doing "something" together as a family. Leading into that day, is the annual Teachers' Convention — February 12 and 13. So it will be a winter break for many children. To you teachers, here is a thought from Dr. Lena B. Prewitt. "Education must begin with the teacher. Someone once said that the teacher is the 'backbone' of our nation. I would prefer to say that the teacher is the living heart of the nation." Have a good Teachers' Convention, teachers!

February is also the beginning of a new semester for our children who are attending F. G. Miller Jr./Sr. High School. This was the first year of a semester experience for some students. Eighty minute periods versus the old forty minute periods took some adjustment. But now it is February and from the experience of the first semester, our students will be able to start their second semester with a "New Beginning." To all of you — we wish you the best. Did you know that it has been determined that the best age for learning is in the twenties. An individual's ability to learn increases up to the age of 22, remains the same to 35 and is still high at 50. Now, who said our young people had something on us? And to you young people, don't wait until you are in your twenties to start putting in more effort to learning. Note — you are beginning a new semester — a "new beginning," and better learning days ahead will depend on your attitude. So, go for it! As it is said, "Don't let life discourage you. Everyone who got where he is had to begin where he was."

Yes, it is the middle of winter — but February gives many messages of a "new beginning." What we do with it, we will decide. There is a quote from the Royal Bank of Canada newsletter that I like: "To measure the goodness of life by its delights, pleasures, and safety is to apply a false standard. The happy life doesn't consist of a glut of luxury. It does not make itself content with commercially produced pleasure — the nightclub idea of what is a good time — mistaking it for happiness. The happy life is made up of substantial things and attributes and purposes. To be sure, you do not find the happy life, you make it!"

Happy new beginnings, everyone!

Canadians underestimate impact of heart disease and stroke

EDMONTON - Recent studies by the Heart and Stroke Foundation pointed out some very big gaps in Canadians' understanding of heart disease and stroke.

"We have learned that many people don't understand that living with heart disease can be a devastating thing," reports Linda Mickelson, Northern Regional Manager of the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Alberta and North West Territories. "A majority of people are under the very mistaken impression that heart disease and stroke are largely diseases of elderly men, and that having a heart attack means dying quietly in your sleep."

The reality is that heart disease and stroke can affect men and women of any age, and that four out of five people survive their first attack, but they often live with debilitating complications that can affect the lives of the victims and their families.

And while cardiovascular research has combined with information on healthy lifestyles to reduce the incidence considerably, heart disease and stroke are still our #1 killer. More than 4500 Albertans die from some form of cardiovascular disease each year, and those who survive live with conditions including paralysis, loss of speech and weakness. Most report that the toughest to overcome is the constant fear of another attack.

"We are focusing our efforts during February on helping people understand how real the risk of heart disease is, and how they can be active in reducing that risk. By supporting the Heart and Stroke Foundation through donations, they are funding research that is continuing to uncover better treatments and preventions," reports Ms. Mickelson.

Donors also support health promotion activities that help people learn to make heart-healthy choices, to reduce those risk factors that are within their control. Heart and Stroke Lifelines is a risk factor-newsletter which is delivered three times per year throughout the province and territories as a free information service.

The Heart and Stroke Foundation of Alberta and NWT is a community-based volunteer organization whose mission is to reduce death and disability from heart disease and stroke. February is Heart Month, and a canvasser will be calling on you to support the Foundation's programs of research and public information. Please be generous with your donation.

Spotlight on volunteers

Lioness Club loves to help

Have you ever wondered what ten dedicated people can do for a community? The Elk Point and District Lioness Club can show you ten members who are roaring with energy and a desire to help.

Everyone knows that Christmas can be hard on families who are in need, so the Lioness Club works to address that need. With the generosity of our community, the Lioness Club distributes food hampers and gifts through its annual Santas Anonymous campaign.

As a matter of fact, whenever emergency situations arise, the Lioness can help.

The club's priority is to help local groups, especially if the groups are related to children. In the past year, the Lioness Club has helped to provide funding to local schools for a morning nutrition program, yearbooks, awards, graduation, and incentive programs. Donations have helped sporting programs like the Skating Club, Minor Hockey and the Soccer Club.

A baby car seat rental program, called "Buckle Up Baby," provides a safe car seat for a nominal fee.

Donations have also helped to purchase medical equipment for individuals, the hospital and the palliative care unit; to support recreational facilities such as the arena; to assist the Canada Day Committee, the First Night Festival, Scouting and Girl Guides; and to aid the Legion. Beyond the local area, the Lioness Club has made donations to national organizations, including the Red Cross, the Kidney Foundation and the Lung Association.

As community services, the club plants flowers in a bed beside the Co-op, and coordinates the newspaper recycling trailer. Although members usually work behind the scenes, the Lioness do make appearances at the Car Show in June and the Extravaganza in December, when they offer juice and burgers or hot chocolate and hot dogs to shoppers.

Funds are raised through the sale of recyclable newspapers, support from local businesses, and in the past and again recently, through the sale of Trip of the Month Club tickets. Trip of the Month Club ticket sales were excellent, and the Lioness sincerely thank everyone who purchased a ticket. All three hundred tickets were sold, and the proceeds will enable the club to provide more services to the district.

The Elk Point and area community has given tremendous support over the past year, and the club is happy to be able to help with local charitable causes.

The Lioness Club meets on the third Thursday of each month at the curling rink, beginning at 7:15 p.m. Guests are welcome.

It's your turn.

Tell us about your volunteer group and what it does in the community. Contact Vicki Brooker at the Elk Point Review, 724-4087, for details.

You're Amazing!

Improve your coping skills and improve your health

A message from Alberta Health

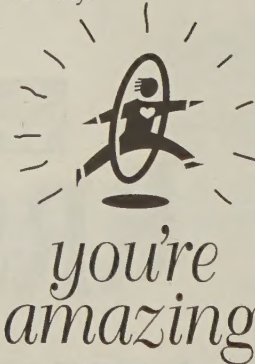

What does "health information" mean to you? Brochures filled with facts about good and bad cholesterol? Reminders from your doctor or conscience about getting up off the couch?

These are certainly important, but you might be pleasantly surprised by a province-wide health program called You're Amazing. It's upbeat, and it tells people that they're already doing a lot of things right. The focus of You're Amazing is on stress-beaters like taking control, making choices, seeking support and forming positive daily habits. And on giving yourself credit for all those things you're already doing that make you healthy.

What do these things have to do with health? A lot, as it turns out. Research has shown a clear connection between good health and the way we cope with everyday life. For example, in many cases, chronic negative emotions are a factor in the development of heart disease.

Here are a few of the easy-to-take tips that You're Amazing is offering to (and receiving from) young parents, who are among the busiest members of our society:

A Partnership for Healthier Living

* Once a week (or once a month) postpone pressing commitments to your employer, your aging parents or your children and spouse in order to spend an hour doing what you really love, whether it is gardening, golfing or playing the guitar. Take time for yourself.

* Find ways to pat yourself on the back. List all your accomplishments in a brag book. If a friend or someone at work has written a note that sings your praises, put it on the bulletin board and look at it when things seem bleak.

* Upset? Simply stand outside and look at the sky until you feel better.

* Leave your briefcase at work at least one evening a week.

* Discover the rewards of volunteer work (even if you're already too busy). There are tremendous emotional rewards in knowing you are helping others and contributing to your community.

That half-hour you spend in the garden (or the park, or with a book, or in the bathtub!) is keeping you healthy — Finding time for yourself is keeping you healthy — You're Amazing.

For more information, call Alberta Health Communications at 310-0000, then dial 427-7164.

You're Amazing is a program designed to help young parents identify the healthy things they do right now and encourage them to find simple, new ways to improve their health and the well-being of those around them.

Notice to Businesses

Do you need to register corporate documents like annual returns, the change of your corporate address, a trade name or partnership name?

Changes at Corporate Registry

As of January 26, 1998, private sector service providers will begin to handle corporate registrations instead of the provincial government. By February 9, 1998, all corporate registration services will be done through authorized service providers.

What will this mean to business?

Processing documents will be instantaneous. And more service providers will mean more convenience to business.

Where do you go now for service?

Authorized service providers can be found by checking the "Yellow Pages" directory under Registry Agents or by accessing the Alberta Municipal Affairs home page at: www.gov.ab.ca/~ma/reg/index.htm

Minor Hockey news

Blades advance to second round

By Doug Bassett
Elk Point Minor Hockey

You remember last week when I told you to watch out for the Peewee Girls Cyclones? Well, not only did they win their first game ever, they also won the "B" event, when they travelled to Macklin, Saskatchewan this past weekend to play in an eight-team tournament. Their first game was a 3 to 1 win over Wilkie with two goals by Kristyn Ballas and a single by Ashley Bochon. The second game ended in a 2-all tie with Macklin with goals by Kali Cousins and Ashley Bochon, and they won the "B" final 4 to 2 over Kerrobert with two goals by Ashley Bochon and singles by Megan Proski and Kristyn Ballas. Good job, girls!

While the Cyclones hit the southeast, the Novice Hurricanes were in the Perogy Capital winning the "C" side of their tournament. After defeating Kikino on Saturday and then losing to Glendon, the Hurricanes then defeated Mallaig in the "C" final. A good weekend for Jeff Husby, new to the Elk Point system, a smart hockey player who has become a very good forechecker. J. B. Stanley is another novice player who has been playing extremely well since the team moved him to defence after juggling some players recently.

The top billing for the game of the week would have to go to Big Ray, the Hawk and Peewee Blades who had their backs against the wall Friday night after losing by three goals on Wednesday night up in Bonnyville, in their first game of the two game, total point provincial playoff. Mark Letestu was given the player of the week by this sports writer after scoring five goals in this contest. Mark, a first-year peewee, with all the tools is really leaving his mark in the hockey world, and mark my words, with some size in the next few years this kid could be going places. Happy birthday tomorrow, Mark! Veteran defenceman Melvin Easthope, who has a shot like a howitzer, was also outstanding in this game and scored the important tying goal. Another huge goal to put the icing on the cake came on a big slap shot by rugged defenceman Sheena Flamond. The final score of 9 to 4 put the Blades into the second round.

After the game I asked Big Ray, "What did you feed these guys, spaghetti?" "No, it was Kubasa," he answered.

Dave Cousins and the Atom Avalanche had the weekend off as they waited to advance to the second round of provincials against Saddle Lake with the first game going Thursday night in Saddle Lake.

Dan Nelson and the Atom Thunder gave a real good effort and battled back after being down 4-0 half way through the second period in their first game against Kitscoty on Thursday night and tied the game at five. The second game of the two game, total points was slated for Sunday in Kitscoty. Playing in Kitscoty is like going into Philly, everyone gets involved, and the Thunder were eliminated from the provincials after a good effort.

A tough weekend for another provincial hopeful, the Bantam Lightning, whose bubble was burst. After losing out to Marwayne 4 and 0 on Thursday night in Marwayne, they came back with a much better effort, and had Marwayne down 5 to 2 at one point in the third period, but didn't get the bounces they needed. The final score, 5 to 4 for the Lightning, wasn't enough to win the two games total points.

The Midget Girls Storm, hosting a five team tournament on the weekend, did an excellent job and came in second place overall. All the teams were evenly matched and two of the games ended in shootouts. The biggest spread in any of the games was by only four goals. On Friday night the Storm had a big 8 to 4 win against Calmar. A hat trick for #7 Jena "That's my girl!" Bassett in this one. On Saturday they lost close ones to Castor 1-0, and to Lashburn 4 to 3, but bounced back and defeated Redwater on Sunday 3 to 1. Carlen Mutch scored two goals and assisted on three others on the weekend, including her first goal ever. Carlen's mother Lois saved this puck. No wonder it seems like we are always buying pucks. Brandy Jackson also had a good weekend with two goals in Sunday's game. Congratulations to all the Storm parents for a job well done.

And a team that is still on the road, seven weeks and counting, the Micro-Novice Tornadoes lost to Mannville 11 to 10 on Saturday. A hat trick each for Shayden Anderson and Chevy Botting, singles by Mitchell Dyck, Ryan Marcenik, Josh Weir and Jaren Bepalko. On Sunday they tied Two Hills 9-all. Hat tricks by Chevy Botting and Shayden

Riding arena will serve Stoney Lake area

A new riding arena under construction in the Stoney Lake area is aimed at getting more families involved in horse-based activities such as gymkhana, cattle penning and team roping.

Ron and Sue Heraid of Stoney Lake Stables are building an insulated 80 foot by 200 foot arena, with frame construction covered with tin inside and out, for year-round use. The building is scheduled for completion this week, and will be ready for use at approximately the end of February.

The Heraids are horse enthusiasts and hope to get other families that enjoy the same sports to join them for a variety of riding activities which may also include cutting horse competition. Sue Heraid also plans to use the building for dog obedience training.

Stoney Lake Stables is located 8 miles west of Elk Point on Secondary Highway 646, then 8 miles south on the Stoney Lake rodeo grounds road.

Access the Potential of Engineering Technology

Access Technologies

Engineering Technology will bring Alberta and the world into the next century. Opportunities in this booming field are limitless, and now there's an innovative new program that puts the power of this knowledge at your fingertips - no matter where you are. It's Access Technologies.

- Delivered through the Southern Alberta Institute of Technology (SAIT), a leading provider of engineering technology programs in Canada.
- Access Technologies enables students anywhere in the province to study the equivalency of one year of courses towards one of more than a dozen engineering technology diplomas.
- Curriculum is delivered through the Internet, teleconferencing or traditional print material at your home, workplace or community site, in conjunction with several host colleges in Alberta.
- Program starts March 1...or whenever you're ready.

Access Technologies breaks the barriers between you and a challenging career in engineering technology.

Public Education funding has risen from rock bottom but it's got a way to go yet!

The recent reinvestment in Public Education is a positive sign that the government has recognized the impact of cuts on Alberta children, teachers, businesses, parents...in fact, all Albertans.

However, a closer look at the announced $380 million reinvestment figure reveals that funding has not returned to anywhere near the levels prior to the 1994 cut.

Almost half of the proposed increase is not reinvestment but simply the result of meeting government obligations for anticipated student enrolment growth.

It seems like a lot of money but it falls short of providing Alberta's children with quality education...it falls short of allowing Albertans to have the best Public Education system.

In short, reinvestment is a start toward ending the yo-yo game of Public Education funding but our children still need and deserve a better deal.

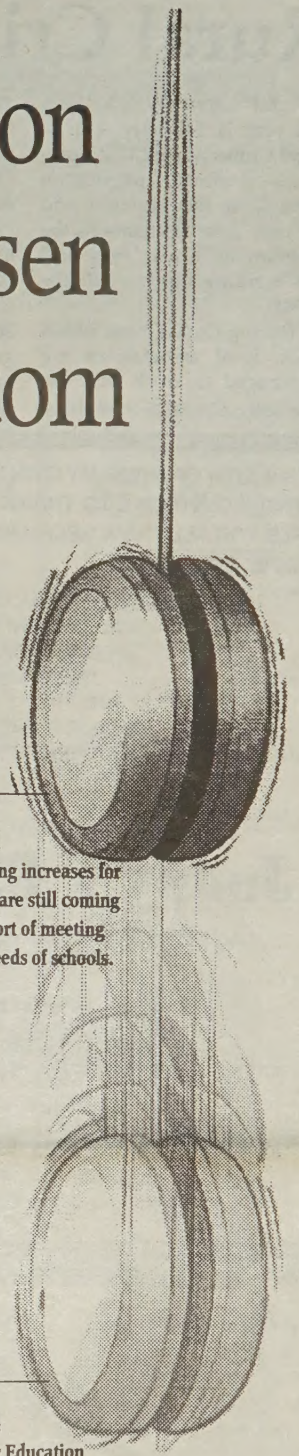

Please consider the facts and end the yo-yo game!

Funding increases for 2001 are still coming up short of meeting the needs of schools.

1994

Public Education funding hits rock bottom with a 12.4% spending cut amounting to $239 million.

Rural Crime Watch Week is February 1 to 7

Rural Crime Watch Week this year is February 1 to 7. Rural Crime Watch (RCW) promotes crime prevention throughout the province and includes rural residents in the program as extra 'eyes and ears' working together with the RCMP.

"During Rural Crime Watch Week, local associations are encouraged to work with the media in the area and hold events to profile their associations," says Lynn Roberts, president of the Alberta Provincial Rural Crime Watch Association.

There are currently 108 community RCW associations in the province with a combined membership of approximately 20,000 households. The program, started as a pilot project in 1979, has one major goal to decrease rural crime that affects farmers, ranchers, acreage owners and others who have a vested interest in rural communities.

The 18th annual RCW workshop is a major provincial event where all associations across the province and neighboring provinces have the opportunity to get together, share ideas and listen to informative speakers address a variety of topics.

"The Alberta Provincial Rural Crime Watch Association works with the workshop hosts in organizing the annual workshop," says Cliff Munroe, Alberta Agriculture, Food and Rural Development's liaison with the RCW program. "The Association includes representatives from a number of RCW associations in Alberta as well as honorary directors from Alberta Environmental Protection, Alberta Farmers Advocate, Alberta Justice, Alberta Livestock Marketing,

This past week I added a few new titles to the reserve list at the circulation desk. Anyone who wants to get an early shot at this summer's hot books should come in and sign up. Included in the new additions are new offerings by Sue Grafton, Patricia Cornwell and Danielle Steel.

Valentine's Day is coming up and on Friday, February 13, Storytime will be holding its Valentine's party. Lat year the theme was red — red food, red clothes, books about red. This year we're going for the warm fuzzies — teddy bears and other stuffed animals. So bring your favorite stuffed toy (and your favorite child) and come help us celebrate!

New in juvenile fiction:

Cadet Geordi is chosen to go on a training mission as an assistant engineer and he sees the ghost of the ship's former commander in The Haunted Starship by Brad and Kathi

Ferguson, a Star Trek, the Next Generation: Starfleet Academy book.

There's a new kind of monster blood in town — it's blue and it's even worse than the other kind in Monster Blood IV from Goosebumps.

Frank and Joe join an underwater team that's exploring a sunken World War II era submarine and find a whole lot more than they bargained for in Dead in the Water from the Hardy Boys Casefiles.

Karen's class is making a cookbook and she wants to include her grandmother's secret recipe in Karen's

Cooking Contest from Baby-Sitters Little Sister.

A horror film becomes all too real in Cry of the Cat, the first entry in R. L. Stine's Goosebumps 2000 series.

Jessi has the opportunity to join a dance program in New York but it means leaving her friends in Stoneybrook in Jessi's Big Break from the Baby-Sitters Club.

To save their friend the gang has to travel to a mysterious realm where they meet mirror copies of themselves in The Dangerous Quest from Spooksville.

And recent additions to our picture books:

Bill Cosby has come out with a series of easy readers called Little Bill Books for Beginning Readers. Oprah Winfrey made the first three books in the series a reading club selection recently. In The Treasure Hunt, Little Bill searches his room for his best treasure and discovers it in an

IN MEMORIAM

SMITH, Victor

In loving memory of Victor Smith, a dear Father and Grandfather, who passed away February 1, 1997.

*His smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall;
He had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Some day we hope to meet him,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp his hand in the better land,
Never to part again.*

Always missed and never forgotten, Dan & Margie, Melissa, Danielle, Tracy & Cody.

Minor hockey

Anderson, two by Ryan Marцениuk and a single by Blake Brodwin.

Coming up this week, the Avalanche are playing Saddle Lake Thursday night in the second round of Provincials. The Lightning play Friday night at home against Marwayne in a league game at 8:15 and the Pee-wee Blades play Saturday at 4:30 at home against Cold Lake in their second round of Provincials. Come out, make some noise and support the boys!

P.S. Up in the beer league, with a hat trick by Tony the "neuf" Peters, the B & R Bullets defeated Lindbergh Last Knights, a "AAA" team that had boasted that they had only lost once this season. The final score, 7 to 6 for the Bullets, "the best team to lace up a pair of skates." By the way, yours truly, coach, manager, scout, team captain and sometimes sports writer, the "Hound Dog," scored the winner with just under two minutes remaining in the game! You gotta love it!

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

HOME & AGRO CENTRE ST. PAUL ALBERTA

The Home & Agro Centre requires a full time home & Agro Clerk. The Core responsibility is sales, customer service and ordering product. If you have a positive attitude and good interpersonal skills,

Apply to Rob or Blaine at Co-op Home & Agro Centre, St. Paul. Experience is an asset

St. Paul Co-op, #3 - 5017-42 St., St. Paul, AB., T0A 3A0

Classified Advertising deadline: Thursdays, 4:00 p.m.

Local crime watch members

As for crimes against persons, assaults remain at a high number in the rural area. In the total number of provincial statutes, the arrests for intoxicated persons has climbed greatly — about 50 per cent higher in 1997 compared to 1996. Traffic collisions and offences remain the highest among the crime stats.

Boorse will be taking any of the local concerns to the provincial annual rural crime watch meeting in Spruce Grove this weekend. This is the fourth year for the provincial board, of which Boorse is also a board member.

So, when you are driving around the countryside and you see the bright yellow and black rural crime watch signs, you will feel safe (or nervous, depending on who you are) in the fact that the rural crime watch has its eyes and ears on the pulse of the community.

Claims Career Opportunity

The Co-operators, a major Canadian insurance / financial services organization, has an opening for an Experienced Claims Representative. Reporting to the Rural Claims Supervisor, you will be responsible for the investigation, assessment and negotiation of all lines of insurance claims.

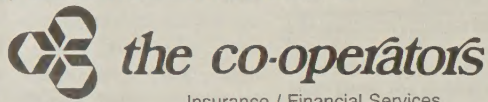

Ideally, the successful candidate will be a self-motivated, professional individual with adjusting experience and a commitment to continuing personal development. Strong interpersonal skills, proficiency with computers, and an ability to work with minimum supervision is required.

The Co-operators, an Equal Opportunity Employer, offers a competitive salary range, a comprehensive benefits package and provides an excellent opportunity for personal and professional growth.

If you meet these requirements, please submit your resume by Feb. 13/98 to:

Ron Harmer
The Co-operators
225, 9405-50 St. NW
Edmonton, Alberta, T6B 2T4
or fax to: 403-448-7033

Only successful candidates will be contacted.
